

WGPC Safe Sanctuary Quiz

- Which of the following are used in the volunteer screening process for working with children, youth and vulnerable persons?
 - Application including a signed Code of Conduct
 - References
 - Criminal Background Screening
 - All of the above
- WGPC requires all volunteers to participate in training that addresses the prevention and detection of abuse or molestation of children, youth and vulnerable persons.
 - True
 - False
- Once a volunteer has participated in the training, they never have to repeat it.
 - True
 - False
- Volunteers must sign a written acknowledgment of receipt, review, and comprehension of the WGPC Protection Policy & Procedures for Children, Youth & Vulnerable Adults.
 - True
 - False
- Volunteers must report any suspected abuse or neglect of a minor to the Missouri Children's Division Child Abuse and Neglect Hotline and to a member of the WGPC Oversight Committee.
 - True
 - False
- The correct ratio of the number of children/youth in one volunteer's care is three (3) minors under the age of 3 years or five (5) minors under the age of 7 years.
 - True
 - False
- An example of safe touch is a
 - Handshake
 - High-five
 - Pat on the back
 - Side hug
 - All of the above
- An example of bad touch is
 - A full-frontal hug
 - Letting a child over kindergarten age sit on a volunteer's lap
 - Kisses
 - A piggyback ride
 - All of the above
- WGPC does not have zero tolerance for bullying, abuse and molestation of children, youth and vulnerable persons.
 - True
 - False
- When escorting a child to the rest room, the "rule of three" requires there to be at least three people present – i.e., one volunteer and two children, or two unrelated volunteers and one child.
 - True
 - False

Printed Name _____ Signature _____

Date _____